UVAHR

Welcome to UVA!

Congratulations on your decision to join over 20,000 faculty, staff, and team members at the University of Virginia! UVA is an iconic public institution of higher education and cutting-edge research, with nationally ranked schools and programs, distinguished faculty, outstanding students, and a nationally recognized academic medical center. You have joined an outstanding community of people who will be your colleagues and may ultimately become “friends and family.” All of us look forward to welcoming you to Charlottesville!

I hope your experience at UVA is exceptional, providing challenging work in a supportive environment. UVA Human Resources is here to help you succeed, and to help make the most of your time here. We offer comprehensive benefits, services, and programs as well as opportunities for your professional and personal development and growth. You can learn more by visiting our website.

If you have questions, contact the helpful members of the HR Solution Center at 434-243-3344 who will help support a smooth transition, and will continue to be a key resource during your time here. We all want you to be successful.

I extend my personal best wishes as you begin your career with us. Again, congratulations and welcome to UVA!

Kelley Stuck

Vice President and Chief Human Resources Officer