City of Alameda Minimum Wage Rate

$16.52

Per Hour Effective July 1, 2023

Beginning July 1, 2023, an employee who performs at least two (2) hours of work in a particular workweek within the geographic boundaries of the City of Alameda must be paid wages of not less than $16.52 per hour. This minimum wage rate applies equally to all employees, regardless of the size of the employer.

The minimum wage requirement is set forth in the City of Alameda's Minimum Wage Ordinance, Alameda Municipal Code Chapter 4-60. Tips may not be counted toward payment of the minimum wage. The implementation schedule of the Minimum Wage Ordinance is as follows:

Minimum Wage	Effective Date
$16.52/hour	July 1, 2023
Adjusted Annually by the Consumer Price Index	July 1, 2024

Under the Ordinance, employees who assert their rights to receive the City's minimum wage are protected from retaliation. Employees may file a civil lawsuit against their employers for any violation of the Ordinance and/or may file a complaint with the City's Community Development Department. The City will investigate possible violations, will have access to payroll records, and may enforce violations of the minimum wage requirements by ordering payment of back wages unlawfully withheld and penalties.

You should contact the City if you believe you are not being paid the minimum wage.

If you have questions, need additional information, please visit/contact:

Hayward Minimum Wage

Beginning January 1, 2024, an employee who performs work within the geographic limits of the City of Hayward must be paid wages not less than the minimum wage stated below.

Effective Date (January 1)	Small Employers (25 or fewer employees)	Large Employers (26 or more employees)
2024	$16.00	$16.90
2025	per State Law	$16.90 + CPI

The minimum wage requirements set forth in the Hayward Minimum Wage Ordinance apply to any employee (part-time or full-time) who performs work within the City of Hayward (tips may not be counted toward payment of the minimum wage).

Future Increases: Beginning on January 1, 2024, and then on January 1 of each year, the minimum wage will increase by the prior calendar year's increase, if any, in the Consumer Price Index (CPI) for Urban Wage Earners and Clerical Workers for the San Francisco-Oakland-Hayward, CA metropolitan statistical area for large employers. For Small Employers, the minimum wage will match California State Law.

Employee Rights: Under the Ordinance, employees who assert their rights to receive the City's minimum wage are protected from retaliation. An employee or any other person may report to the City or the California Labor Commissioner a suspected violation of the Minimum Wage Ordinance. The report will be investigated for possible violations and will require access to payroll records. The City or California Labor Commission will enforce violations of the minimum wage ordinance by ordering reinstatement of employees, payment of back wages unlawfully withheld, penalties and fines.

OFFICIAL NOTICE MENLO PARK MINIMUM WAGE IS

$16.70

PER HOUR

EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 2024

On September 24, 2019, the City Council approved a local minimum wage ordinance effective January 1, 2020. Section 5.76.030 of the local minimum wage law provides annual inflation protection adjustments in January of each year, capped at 3%, using the Consumer Price Index for the San Francisco area. The January 1, 2024, inflation protection adjustment increases the local minimum wage from $16.20 to $16.70 per hour.

- Requires that all employers in Menlo Park pay a minimum per hour wage to employees working more than 2 hours per week
- Applies to all employers in Menlo Park, excluding federal, state, county and public school district employers
- No provision for a phased implementation based on the number of employees

The City shall take any appropriate enforcement action to secure employer compliance:

- May issue an administrative citation with a daily fine for each day or portion thereof and for each employee or person as to whom the violation occurred or continued
- May issue an administrative compliance order

It shall be unlawful for an employer or any other party to discriminate in any manner or take adverse action against any person in retaliation for exercising rights protected under the local minimum wage ordinance.

For more information or to report a potential violation, please contact the City Manager's Office.

OFFICIAL NOTICE

OAKLAND PAID SICK LEAVE

Effective Date: March 2, 2015

Pursuant to Measure FF and Oakland Municipal Code section 5.92.030, all employers must provide paid sick leave to each employee (part-time, full-time, and temporary) who performs at least two (2) hours of work in a particular workweek and within the geographic limits of the City of Oakland. Employees begin accruing paid sick leave on March 2, 2015 for employees working for an employer on or before that date. Employees who are hired after March 2, 2015 may not use any paid sick leave until after ninety (90) calendar days of employment.

Employees accrue one (1) hour of paid sick leave for every thirty (30) hours worked in the City of Oakland. Employees of employers for which fewer than ten (10) persons (including full-time, part-time, and temporary employees) work for compensation during any given week may have up to forty (40) hours of accrued paid sick leave saved at any time. Employees of other employers may have up to seventy-two (72) hours of accrued paid sick leave at any time. Employers may provide greater sick leave benefits than that mandated by Section 5.92.030. An employee's accrued paid sick leave will carry over from year to year but is not paid out at the time of separation of employment. Employees may use their accrued paid sick leave for their own medical care or to aid or care for a family member or designated person.

Under Section 5.92 et seq., employees who assert their rights to paid sick leave are protected from retaliation. Employees may file a civil lawsuit against their employers for any violation of this law and may seek remedies in the form of back pay, reinstatement and/or injunctive relief. Employees may also file a complaint with the City's Department of Workplace and Employment Standards. The City will investigate possible violations and will have access to payroll records. A Hospitality Employer is a business who owns, controls, or operates any part of a hotel, restaurant, or banquet facility within the City of Oakland. A hospitality worker is any individual who works for a Hospitality Employer and who performs a service for which a Hospitality Employer imposes a service charge.

A service charge includes all separately designated amounts collected by a Hospitality Employer from customers that are for service performed by hospitality workers or are described in such a way that customers might reasonably believe that the amounts are for those services, including without limitation to charges designated as a “service charge,” “delivery charge,” or “portage charge.” Any tip, gratuity, money, or part of any tip, gratuity or money that has been paid or given to or left for the hospitality worker by a customer over and above the actual amount due for services rendered or for goods, food, drink or articles sold or served to the customer are excluded from Section 5.92.040.

Under Section 5.92 et seq., employees who assert their rights under Oakland’s Service Charge law are protected from retaliation. Employees may file a civil lawsuit against their employers for any violation of this law and may seek remedies in the form of back pay, reinstatement and/or injunctive relief. Employees may also file a complaint with the City’s Department of Workplace and Employment Standards. The City will investigate possible violations and will have access to payroll records. Employers who violate Section 5.92 et seq. will be liable for civil penalties for each violation up to a maximum of $1,000.00 per violation.

- If you have questions, need additional information, or believe you are not being paid correctly, please contact your employer or the City of Oakland’s Department of Workplace and Employment Standards at: Department of Workplace and Employment Standards 250 Frank H. PASADENA MINIMUM WAGE

Effective Date: July 1, 2023

Beginning July 1, 2023, employers must pay employees wages of not less than $16.93 per hour (in addition to any tips received) to each employee. The minimum wage requirement set forth in the Pasadena Minimum Wage Ordinance applies to adult and minor employees who work two (2) or more hours per week in Pasadena.

Under the Ordinance, employees who assert their rights to receive the City's minimum wage are protected from retaliation. Employees may file a civil lawsuit against their employers for any violation of the Ordinance or may file a complaint with the City's Department of Planning and Community Development. The City will investigate possible violations and, where appropriate, will obtain payroll records as provided by law, and will enforce violations of the minimum wage requirements by ordering reinstatement of employees, payment of back wages unlawfully withheld, and penalties. In addition, any business that violates the provisions of the Pasadena Minimum Wage Ordinance is subject to criminal prosecution.

Pasadena's minimum wage rules were approved prior to the State of California taking action to increase the State Minimum Wage. While similarities exist, the requirements are different. If you have questions, need additional information, or believe you are not being paid correctly, please contact your employer, the City of Pasadena, or the City's contract service provider: National Day Laborer Organizing Network.

Richmond Minimum Wage

Effective January 1, 2024

$17.20 Per Hour

The minimum wage requirement set forth in the Richmond Minimum Wage Ordinance 11-14 N.S., codified in Richmond Municipal Code Chapter 7.108, applies to adult and minor employees who work two (2) or more hours a week for a covered Employer. Each year, the City will adjust the minimum wage as stated in the Minimum Wage Ordinance until January 1, 2019, when it will increase to $15 per hour. However, beginning on January 1, 2020 and each year thereafter, the minimum wage shall increase by an amount corresponding to the prior year's increase according to the Department of Labor's Regional Consumer Price Index.

Under the Ordinance, employees who assert their rights to receive the City's minimum wage are protected from retaliation. Employees may file a civil lawsuit against their employers for any violation of the Ordinance or may file a complaint with the Employment and Training Department. The City will investigate possible violations, will have access to payroll records, and will enforce violations of the minimum wage requirements.

Please note, the City Council amended the ordinance in July 2017 and eliminated certain exemptions relating to intermediate wages, small businesses, government grants and businesses that deliver goods and services outside of Richmond. The amended ordinance is available online at www.richmondworks.org.

Santa Monica Paid Sick Leave

Effective Date: January 1, 2017

Starting January 1, 2017, employers are required to provide paid sick time to their employees who work within Santa Monica city limits in accordance with Santa Monica’s Paid Sick Leave provisions in Municipal Code Section 4.62.025.

Employers with 26
or more employees

72 hours

Employers with 25
or fewer employees

40 hours

Employees are eligible for paid sick leave if they perform at least two hours of work in a particular work week within the geographic limits of the City of Santa Monica, and qualify as an employee entitled to payment of a minimum wage from any employer under the California Labor Code and wage orders published by the California Industrial Welfare Commission. Employees can use sick leave consistent with the California Healthy Workplaces, Healthy Families Act of 2014.

Paid sick leave will begin to accrue at the start of an employee’s employment. Employees can use accrued paid sick leave after the first 90 days of employment or consistent with the employer’s policies, whichever is sooner.

For every 30 hours worked, an employee shall accrue one hour of paid sick leave. Employers may choose to provide greater sick leave benefits. An employee’s accrued paid sick leave carries over from year to year (calendar year, fiscal year, or year of employment) up to the accrual limit shown above, except that no accrual or carryover is required if the employer provides the full amount of leave required at the start of each calendar year, fiscal year, or year of employment.

Under the Ordinance, employees who assert their rights to receive paid sick leave are protected from retaliation. Employees may file a civil lawsuit against their employers for any violation of the Paid Sick Leave provisions. The City can investigate possible violations, and can enforce the paid sick leave requirements. Available remedies include but are not limited to reinstatement of employees, payment of paid sick leave unlawfully withheld, and monetary penalties.

Santa Monica Service Charge Law

Effective Date: July 1, 2016

Starting July 1, 2016, employers using service charges must abide by regulations in the Minimum Wage Ordinance, Municipal Code Section 4.62.040. This means that employers must:

- Pay all revenue collected as a service charge to the workers who generally performed the services for which the charge was collected (can include back-of-house)
- Pay any revenue collected as a health-care related surcharge to the employee through (i) depositing into segregated accounts controlled by the employee or (ii) paying to the employee in wages
- Inform employees of service charge distribution
- Keep records of service charge distribution

Employers may pay service charge revenue to employees whose primary role is not supervisory or managerial. Employers must also provide clear and conspicuous notice to customers of any service charges and their use.

Employers will distribute amounts collected for hotel banquets or hotel-catered meetings, hotel room service, or hotel portage service to the employees directly providing the service. Employers that had an existing practice of pooling and distributing service charges prior to the Minimum Wage effective date may continue with this practice.

Under the Ordinance, employees who assert their rights to receive service charge revenue are protected from retaliation. Employees may file a civil lawsuit against their employers for any violation of the service charge provisions. The City can investigate possible violations, and can enforce the service charge requirements. Available remedies include but are not limited to reinstatement of employees, payment of service charges unlawfully withheld, and monetary penalties.
