- 6. If the Employee fails to remain employed by the Hiring Department for one year for reasons beyond his/her control (e.g. illness or death), other than reasons of poor performance, the Hiring Department may in its sole discretion waive all or part of the liability owed by the Employee. Any such waiver must be approved in writing by the Employee's Hiring Department head or dean and the Human Resources representative. Prior to such approval, the Hiring Department head or dean must notify Human Resources if the Employee does not remain employed at the University for the requisite year.
- 7. In the event the Employee leaves the Hiring Department to work at another department within the University during the one year period noted above, the Hiring Department and the department to which the employee is transferring ("New Department") shall negotiate in good faith for the repayment, pro-rata, of the Sign-on Bonus by the New Department. It is the Employee's obligation to make the New Department aware of the Employee's receipt of the Sign-on Bonus and to request repayment assistance from the New Department. Unless the New Department affirmatively agrees to reimburse the Hiring Department for the pro-rated portion of the Sign-on Bonus, the Employee remains responsible for repaying the Hiring Department.
- 8. In the event that the Hiring Department for good reason pays the Employee a sign-on bonus after the Employee accepts an offer of employment but prior to the Employee's actual initial day on the job, the Employee agrees to repay the entire amount of the sign-on bonus should the Employee for any reason fail to report for work on the date indicated in paragraph 3 above.

BY SIGNING BELOW, the Employee certifies that he/she has not accepted a financial incentive for accepting employment at the University, other than as described in this Agreement.
